PROTECTION OF USER INFORMATION

1. Your identity is confidential and we will not share it with anyone without your consent.
2. Any information that can personally identify you is not visible to others.
3. Phone contacts and data are private property and we will not utilize them by any means without your permission.
4. When you login to the 'GP guide' app, your login credentials are safe and your password is totally encrypted.
5. 'GP guide' will never sell or distribute your personal information to a third party(s) without your consent.

INFORMATION WE MAY COLLECT

We may collect and process the following types of information from you or third parties in connection with your use of our Services:

Personal Information – it will include, for example: (1) your name and contact data (such as your e-mail address, phone number, and physical address); (2) your login and password; (3) demographic data (such as your gender, date of birth and location).

Non-Personal User Information - We may also gather non-personal user information about your computer or device and how you use our Services. This information is typically anonymous and the analytics that we share for this purpose will not identify you as an individual. The collection of this non-personal data is in order for us to learn more about your and our other users' online behavior so that we can improve the Services and general marketing to provide a better experience of our brand and cater more to your and our other users' needs.

You represent and warrant that all the Information you provide in relation to obtaining the Services is true, accurate, and current and complete and you agree to maintain and promptly update such Information, as and when necessary, to keep it current. If we have reasonable grounds to suspect that such Information is untrue, inaccurate or incomplete, we have the right to suspend or terminate the Services.

CHANGES

When 'GP guide' makes any amended changes in this privacy policy, you will be notified immediately.
